LIBRARY NEWS

January 2020

The Medford Library Project

In April 2018, the Patchogue Medford Library's Board of Trustees passed a resolution setting forth its commitment to establish a library branch at the Medford Athletic Complex, subject to the Library receiving sufficient funding from the town of Brookhaven and the Medford Hamlet Foundation. The Library and the Town of Brookhaven continue to meet to discuss lease agreement terms and are working towards making the proposed Library Branch a reality. There will be updates in early 2020. Stay tuned to the Library's website for more information. Any questions, please contact the Director at 631-654-4700, ext. 300.

Stony Brook
Medicine

New Partnership for 2020: Stony Brook Healthy Libraries Program

This pilot program will begin in February and last through early April.

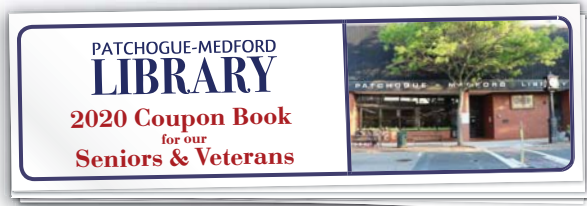

Beginning Tuesday, February 4 from 12-3 pm

Nursing students supervised by nurse faculty from Stony Brook Medicine will be on hand bi-weekly to provide health education and screening information. They will focus on providing information to our community that will promote health and will teach ways to reduce the risk for some health conditions such as heart disease and stroke prevention. Topics will be addressed in group and/or one on one sessions. Nursing students will be located in the Library every other Tuesday beginning February 4, 2020. Registration is ongoing and drop-ins are welcome.

Beginning Wednesday, February 5 from 9:30-1:30 pm

Do you or a loved one have a new diagnosis, medication, or health concern? Do you want reliable, accurate information? A graduate student in public health from Stony Brook Medicine will provide important health information. Please feel free to drop in or ask at the Adult Services desk, and be sure to bring your health-related questions! Registration for one-on-one time is ongoing and drop-ins are welcome.
