

It was a sincere honor and privilege to ride down Main Street in Patchogue as the Italian American Man of the Year in 2016. The best memory was seeing our wonderful community join together to celebrate as “One Big Italian Family” for the day. I am now 93 years old and have lived in this wonderful Village of Patchogue my entire life. Celebrating the Feast of St. Liberata with family and friends is a long time Patchogue tradition that I hope many future generations will continue to enjoy! ~ Artie Fuccillo
