

Great Books for 4th Grade

Applegate, Katherine
CRENSHAW

Jackson and his family have fallen on hard times. There's no more money for rent. And not much for food either. His parents, his little sister, and their dog may have to live in their minivan. Again. Crenshaw is a cat. He's large, he's outspoken, and he's imaginary. He has come back into Jackson's life to help him. But is an imaginary friend enough to save this family from losing everything?

Eulberg, Elizabeth
THE GREAT SHELBY HOLMES

Shelby Holmes is not your average sixth grader. She's nine years old, barely four feet tall, and the best detective her Harlem neighborhood has ever seen. When eleven-year-old John Watson moves downstairs, Shelby finds something that's eluded her up till now: a friend. John isn't sure what to make of Shelby, but he soon finds himself her most trusted (read: only) partner in a dognapping case that'll take both talents to crack.

Eggers, Dave
HER RIGHT FOOT

In this fun take on nonfiction, Dave Eggers and Shawn Harris investigate a seemingly small trait of America's most emblematic statue. What they find is about more than history, more than art. What they find in the Statue of Liberty's right foot is the powerful message of acceptance that is essential to an entire country's creation.
