Happy New Year!

I hope this newsletter finds you and your family healthy, rested, and ready to begin another year with the Library. Thank you to everyone who joined us for our 125th anniversary celebration in December. We are deeply honored to mark this meaningful milestone with the community we proudly serve.

For 125 years, the Patchogue-Medford Library has been a cornerstone of learning, connection and community pride. Founded at the heart of a growing village, the Library has continually evolved to meet the needs of its residents—expanding collections, embracing new technologies, and offering programs that inspire curiosity at every age.

Today, the Patchogue-Medford Library is a vibrant community hub where people gather to read, learn, discover, and create. With a dedicated staff, innovative services, and a steadfast commitment to access for all, the Library continues to enrich individual lives and strengthen our community.

As we celebrate 125 years of service, we honor the generations who helped build this institution and look forward to the next chapter of learning, growth, and community engagement.

As we begin 2026, here are a few helpful reminders:

Registration Matters

Registering for programs—and calling to cancel if you're unable to attend—is essential. These practices help ensure the best possible experience for everyone and allow us to make the most effective use of Library resources. We appreciate your cooperation and support.

Check Your Program Location

With three Library locations, we are making full use of every space to offer engaging programs and services. Please double-check your program's location in advance:

- (P) Patchogue-Medford Library, Main Street Branch
- (M) Medford Branch at the Medford Athletic Complex
- (C) Carnegie Library Branch
- (*) Offsite

Local History Room Drop-In Hours

Our Local History Room now offers walk-in hours on Wednesday evenings from 5-8 pm and on the second Saturday of each month from 2-5 pm, with a special focus on family-friendly discoveries. The room remains available by appointment at other times to accommodate your research needs.

Studio E Is Open!

Studio E, our podcast recording studio, is available for community use. Please see the back page of this newsletter for details on how to get started.

Copy Center Update

Our Copy Center pricing has been updated. Patrons will continue to receive 10 free black-and-white prints per day. Color printing is now available at $0.25 per page. Visit the Copy Center for additional information.

Libraries everywhere are facing unique challenges, including budget constraints, rising operational costs, and increasing demand for both digital and physical resources. Despite these challenges, our commitment to serving the community remains unwavering. We continue to explore innovative solutions, strengthen partnerships, and advocate for the essential role libraries play in education, literacy, and access to information.

If you love your Library and the services we provide, we encourage you to become a library advocate. Your voice helps ensure New York State libraries receive the funding needed to remain indispensable community resources. Visit www.pmlib.org to learn how you can help.

Thank you for your continued support and for being an integral part of our Library family. Here's to a new year of growth, resilience, and shared success.

Warm regards,
Danielle Paisley, Director

REGISTRATION REMINDERS

Registration = A Stronger Program For All

WHY REGISTER?

Programs come with real costs, and your RSVP helps us plan, prep and provide high-quality experiences for everyone.

It ensures supplies are set and every participant gets the support they need.

Plus, space is limited, always register to secure your spot!

Program full? Join the waitlist! We may be able to add sessions, if programs are in high demand.

HOW TO REGISTER:

Registering is as easy as 1-2-3!
Have your library card (barcode) handy.

- Go online to pmlib.libnet.info/events
- Call 631-654-4700
- Stop in. A librarian can register you at any desk.

Using your library barcode increases the accuracy of registrations and waitlists.

All patrons attending programs should have a library card. Get one - they're free!

CAN'T MAKE IT?

Plans change, we get it!

If something comes up and you can't make it, please cancel your spot online or give us a call at 631-654-4700 - so another person has a chance to join in on the fun!

We often get a few cancelations and we actively monitor waitlists. We will contact you if we can fill you in.

Thank you!

BOOK REVIEW The Song of Achilles by Madeline Miller

I've heard about The Song of Achilles for a long time and it's been praised and hyped up so much that it was definitely a book that I knew I had to read. While I'm not a big fan of mythological-based stories, I have read a bunch of Greco-Roman mythology because of school so I was aware of what the ending would be. I mean, it's a Greek tragedy after all.

I really have to applaud the author for doing such a phenomenal job at crafting a story that made someone who knew about the myth cry despite knowing what was going to happen. I'm glad that I finally got around to reading this and I understand why this book is loved even to this day.
